6-8 JUNE

THE ST. PETERSBURG INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC FORUM

is one of the leading international platforms to discuss key issues on the global economic agenda. The Forum first took place in 1997, and since 2005, has been held under the auspices of the President of the Russian Federation.

KEY FIGURES FROM SPIEF 2018:

- >17,000 participants from 143 countries
- >150 business events, >1,000 speakers and moderators
- 4,081 journalists representing 800 media organizations

BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING IN THE SPIEF 2019

- The opportunity to hold business meetings with representatives of over 1,500 Russian and international companies. Most organizations – which include Fortune 500 and Forbes Global 2000 companies – are represented by their heads.
- Every industry is represented at the Forum, from finance and IT to agriculture and mining.
- The plenary session is the central event of the Forum, and is attended by the President of the Russian Federation and leaders of the Forum's guest countries.
- A Forum exhibition featuring presentations and demonstrations of B2B solutions, and a space for constructive dialogue with heads of global corporations, government representatives, international experts, and the media.
- The opportunity to continue discussions in an informal setting at cultural and sporting programme events.
